COMPETITION ORDER, 2015
(S 1/2015)

COMPETITION (COMPOSITION OF OFFENCES) REGULATIONS, 2020

In exercise of the power conferred by section 65(2) of the Competition Order, 2015, the Minister of Finance and Economy, with the approval of His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan, hereby makes the following Regulations —

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Competition (Composition of Offences) Regulations, 2020 and shall be deemed to have commenced on 1st January 2020.

Compoundable offences

2. (1) The offences set out in the first column of Schedule 1 may be compounded by the Director or any officer of the Commission authorised by the Director in accordance with section 65.

(2) The maximum sum for which each such offence may be compounded is specified in the second column of Schedule 1.

Acceptance of composition of offence

3. (1) An offence may be compounded only if the person reasonably suspected of having committed the offence —

(a) accepts the offer of composition made by the Commission in writing in the form set out in Schedule 2; and

(b) pays the composition sum to the Commission, within 14 days after the offer of composition is made or such longer period as the Commission may specify.

(2) Where the person referred to in sub-regulation (1) is not an individual, the acceptance of composition shall be made —

(a) in the case of a body corporate, by an officer of that body corporate;

(b) in the case of a partnership, by a partner of that partnership; or

(c) in the case of an unincorporated association (other than a partnership), by an officer of that association or a member of its governing body.

(3) In sub-regulation (2), “officer” —

(a) in relation to a body corporate, means a director, member of the committee of management, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body; or

(b) in relation to an unincorporated association (other than a partnership), means the president, the secretary or any member of the committee of the association and includes persons holding positions analogous to those of president, secretary or member of a committee.
